

All decisions are based on equitable and environmental impacts across all cultures and communities, equity of opportunity and income, reduced barriers

MEASURES

- Increased engagement and wellbeing measured by tools (WHO, Wellbeing survey against Canterbury)
- Long term regulated rental is the norm
- Tertiary education is undertaken by 80% of population

Greater Christchurch is a place people want to live in, not a place they have to live in. A place of belonging and identity, for all

MEASURES

- 90% of people complete a health, mental health and wellbeing/satisfaction survey
- 90% of people in a community come together to discuss community issues and decisions
- 90% of people are actively involved in at least one community association

Embodiment of the principles of Te Tiriti

MEASURES

- Mana whenua have equal voice and value in all societal system
- All people in Aotearoa understand and enact their role in Te Tiriti

GREATER CHRISTCHURCH

2050

WELLBEING ASPIRATIONS

SOCIETY

Naturally sustainable accessible environment for all to enjoy

MEASURES

- The local community is empowered to support individual unique needs in a healthy way
- Continual sustenance of the natural environment for all generations
- The vibrant quality of the natural environment is reflected in the health and wellbeing of each person in the local community

Everyone has what they need in order to thrive and feel fulfilled

MEASURES

- A poverty free society
- Achievement of wellbeing and health incorporating Māori values
- Self efficacy and thriving